

All Landing Rights Requestors:

Southern California Logistics Airport (KVCV/VCV) is designated as a User fee Airport [§122.15] (a) Permission to land set forth in 19 CFR §122.14. Office hours are Monday through Friday 0800-1700 and services for inspection of arriving aircraft are available seven days per week 0600- 2200 PST in accordance with the port's permission to land procedures. Phone calls and e-mails are not monitored outside of office hours. Pilots must secure permission to land by contacting CBP at least one business day prior to departure from foreign. Email requests can be sent to cbpscla@cbp.dhs.gov.

Upon receipt of the landing rights request, VCV CBP will respond that the request for landing rights has been received. Prior to emailing a landing rights request, ensure that EAPIS has been filed.

Part 135 landing rights requests must include the following information:

- e-APIS Confirmation Number
- Date of arrival to KVCV (local date)
- ETA (local time)
- FBO/Contracting Party
- Tail number
- Number of passengers
- Number of crew
- Carrier code and flight number
- Routing of flight (four letter code or three letter code)
- International Carrier (Activity Code Type 3) bond number
- Southern Border Overflight Exemption (BOE), if necessary

Part 91 landing rights requests must include the following information:

- e-APIS Confirmation Number
- Date of arrival to KVCV (local date)
- ETA (local time)
- FBO/Contracting Party
- Tail number
- Number of passengers
- Number of crew
- Routing of flight (four letter code or three letter code)
- Southern Border Overflight Exemption (BOE), if necessary

As reminder for both Part 91 and 135 passengers utilizing the Visa Waiver Program (VWP) insure the following two items: that your carrier is a VWP signatory carrier and that the passengers have a valid approved ESTA.

In addition to landing rights requests, modifications and cancelations may also be made via VCV CBP's mailbox at cbpscla@cbp.dhs.gov.

Lastly, a landing rights request does not constitute approval of landing rights at VCV. An email will be sent when landing rights is granted.

For further clarification by phone contact CBP in Victorville, CA @ (760) 243-1928.