This guy is the greatest enemy of sewer pipes! He is made up of fats, oils and grease and if he gets into the pipes at your house, he can make them overflow and cause mayhem and destruction!

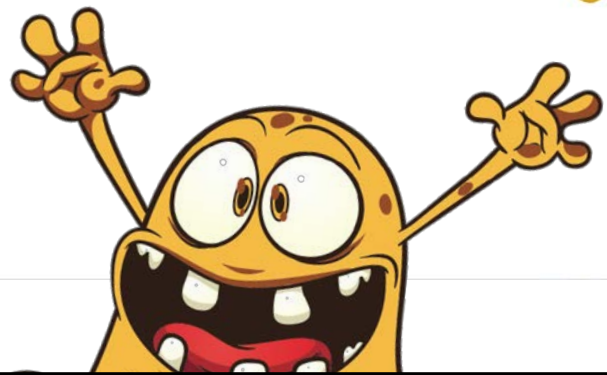

Color me!

This monster has to be stopped and destroyed. He can attach himself to the inside of the drains and pipes in your house and attack from within by blocking water flow and causing the pipes to clog!

Do not feed him by dumping FOG (Fats, Oils and Grease) down the drain! Cool it, Can it and Trash it instead!

Don't be a turkey this Thanksgiving!

Don't be a turkey when you clean up your kitchen after holiday meals.

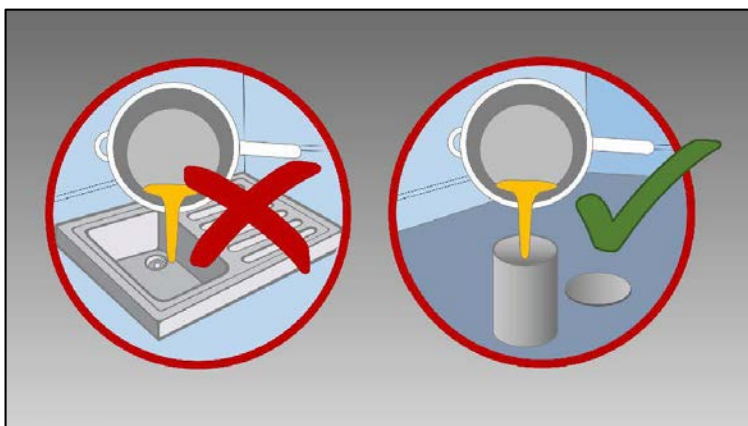

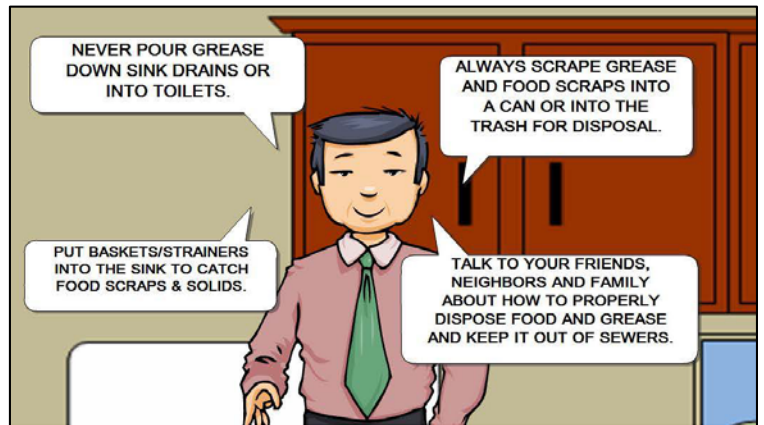

Don't pour your fats, oils and grease (F.O.G.) from roasting, frying and baking turkeys, chickens and other meats down the kitchen sink! It will clog your drains and pipes and harm the environment in the process.

Instead, dispose of them properly and save yourself a lot of potential headache in the process. Cool it, Can it and Trash it instead!
